This January come and play a critically important role as we join to anchor the Christ Energy within a strategic geographic triangle in the state of Florida over three separate Saturdays on January 17, 24, and 31. The third of this historic event is located in Naples.

During 2009, Panache is guided to bring together those ready to embrace a life-changing, authentic transformative process and together open gateways of grace and light across North America to benefit humanity as well as planet Earth.

We are living during the most challenging times in modern history. Panache's gift transmits all of the love, light, transformation and inner healing needed to move into higher levels of vibration and deep inner knowing. This miracle wipes away energetic content, karma, and sin, all impediments to living a life of integrity.

Panache Desai is a living master who activates and guides individuals into direct connection with the Divine through the transmission of "The Christ Energy." He travels throughout the world sharing his profound gift of activation. This is a dynamic call to spiritual empowerment with people from all backgrounds, beliefs and faiths.

The Divine is awaiting your invitation.
